Justification for decision: (Use continuation sheet if necessary and attach map)

The property at 43 Blackiston Avenue, Cumberland, Allegany County is not located in any of Cumberland's eligible historic districts. Except for a decorative shingle roof, the property appears to have undergone prior rehabilitation and alterations which has diminished its architectural qualities appropriate for consideration on the Maryland or National Registers.

The property is proposed for further rehabilitation, including interior work and new roofing, under the MHRP program.

Documentation on the property/district is presented in: MHT Files for Allegany County
